INTERNAL TESTING

We issue a q.no against each incoming material and then it undergoes testing as per the testing plan like visual, dimensionm pmi, macro etch test, surface crack, upsetting test etc.

MATERIAL CONTROL CARD

After the samples have been thoroughly tested and material is found satisfactory, a material control card is issued.

At any point of time, it shows the balance quantity of material against each material & contains the record of WORK ORDERS in which the material from particular Q. NO is used.

IN PROCESS INSPECTION

During all stages of the manufacturing, in - process inspection and test plan are followed, In-Process Inspection and test plan clearly specifies the parameters to be checked at each stage, acceptance criteria, frequency of sampling , Instrument to used, Formate to be used and the concerned department responsible for assurance of particular parameter.

FINAL VISUAL & PACKING

Final visual inspection and packing is carried out.

RAW MATERIAL RECEIPT

All the incoming raw material comes with a metallurgical test reports.

NABL LAB TESTING

The samples are tested internally first and then sent to NABL accredited lab center lab center for chemical verification.

NABL Lab reports is kept in record against the Q. NO issued at the first stage.

JOB ROUTE CARD

On receipt of order, A job route card is made of each items, sit clearly specifies the order number, delivery schedule along with mechanical and dimensional requirements and Q. NO of material from which the product is going to be manufactured on the back side of job Route card, stage wise and final inspection sheet is attached so that conformance to quality and checked and maintained at each step.

MECHANICAL TESTING

Samples are taken as per approved QAP/Test plan and Hardness, Tensile & Impact test is done

ISSUE OF TEST REPORTS

Final test certificates specify the Q.NO used against each item, so that material can be Back-Tracked and Traceable.

MATERIAL GRADE

MFG. OF STAINLESS STEEL, HIGH TENSILE,
CARBON STEEL & EXOTIC GRADE FASTENERS

We work on both fixed and flexible manufacturing facility. All the standardized items / mass production items are manufactured on set manufacturing facility. To cater the production of non standardized items and non running sizes, we work of flexible manufacturing. This helps us to manufacture the standardized items in a cost effective manner and at the same time, make the supply of customized products and odd sizes.
